FUTURELOUNGE #9

Einladung zur

DREAM ACADEMIA FUTURELOUNGE #9, Nov 12, 2010: “FILM”

Dear dreamAs!

Welcome to the program of the last FUTURELOUNGE in 2010, this time the theme is “FILM”. As you may have heard, we are organizing TEDxPannonia Woman on Dec 7, 2010 as our last event in this wonderful year. Beginning with 2011, FUTURELOUNGE will be called “dreamAslounge” and will be even more focused on inspiration and very special dreams.

So, here a preview on what you can expect of FUTURELOUNGE #9:

Talent interview

Georg Csarmann, award-winning young filmmaker from Burgenland will be interviewed about the way to his dream of becoming a famous filmmaker. Of course he will show parts of his projects, too.

Talk 1

Tobias is a media artist. Coming from classical arts, he more and more started to get modern pop culture into his works. Today he is respected artist and his works are featured in exhibitions from New York to Vienna.

DreamA Interview

Roman Pachernegg finished his first movie „Das Glück der Anderen“ which was shown in cinemas all over Austria in 2008. Inspired by a spontaneous impulse in 2010, he sold his car and went for a 10 days trip to the russian steel city Magnitogorsk to find some utopian images for his new planned film-project.

Talk 2

Roman Tolic will introduce “Hercules Filmnetwork”, his idea of filmmaking 2.0. His project deals with crowdfunded filmmaking in all areas, from financing to post-production.

Entertainment Session

Axel E. Blanck studied science of communications, psychology, dramatics and business administration. Axel is anchorman and entertainer since 1985 and won, among others, the “Kleinkunstpreis des WDR”. Since 1995 he is member of “Rote Nasen Clowndoctors”. In FUTURELOUNGE he will present parts of his magic show.

All the best from Dreamicon Valley,
